

Jewellery

SCULPTURE AND JEWELRY

Although sculpture is loved when acquired, it is neglected when one travels and leaves it behind. I created sculptural jewelry to personalize and allow this art a better integration into the owners' lives. It should reflect their identities and portray their confidence in taste. It is communication without speech and should provide "shine" in our sometimes-drab world.